

Upcoming RCCO Events:

NOON-HOUR LENTEN SERIES

at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church
12:15-12:45pm

Please join us for the next mid-day service. These simple ecumenical services are intended to be a quiet oasis of organ music, congregational singing, prayer and scripture. All are welcome.

March 20 - Helen Suh (St John's Anglican Cathedral)

We acknowledge the generous support of BMRBPIPEORG

4th ANNUAL BACH MARATHON

Young United Church 222 Furby Street
Saturday, April 20, 2024 1:00- 5:00 pm

This delightful event features a plethora of performers and instruments and will be narrated by Herr Bach, and a guest, in costume.. Admission is by donation. Audience members are encouraged to come and go at will.

BECOME A FRIEND

For over a hundred years, the Royal Canadian College of Organists has been open to anyone with an interest in the organ and music for the organ. Consider making a donation to the RCCO Winnipeg Centre. All donations of $10 or more are eligible for a tax receipt. For a donation of $30 or more, you would be designated a "Friend" of the Centre which would entitle you to receive all of our local invitations, notices and newsletters.

If you know of a piano student who might be interested in organ study, let them know that the RCCO offers scholarships for beginning organists.

See our website: www.rccowinnipeg.ca for updates on events and more information on any of the above.

About today's organist:

A native of Ohio, Dorcas Windsor received her Bachelor of Music Education degree from North Central College in Naperville, Illinois. She pursued graduate studies at Northern Illinois University and taught elementary school music in the Chicago area and in Winnipeg. She has served as a collaborative pianist with school and community choirs and continues to enjoy being a free-lance musician.

Dorcas served as organist at Westworth United Church from 1975 until the fall of 2023 and remains an active member of the church. Dorcas has been a member of the Winnipeg RCCO Centre for many years, serving as Centre President twice and currently as the Internal Communications Chair.
